

PathWays PA

Ending the cycle of poverty, homelessness, and abuse

About PathWays PA

- Established in 1978
- Eight programs serving nearly 5000 people each year
- Working to end the cycle of poverty, homelessness, and abuse

Residential Programs

Center for Families* –
Delaware County

Transitional Living
Program -
Philadelphia and Chester

Basic Center Program –
Philadelphia

Community Based Programs

Volunteer Income
Tax Assistance

Adult Education

Financial Path$

SEPHA*

Project Peace

Public Policy Programs

Earned Sick and Safe Days in Philadelphia

Workers can earn up to 40 hours/year to care for themselves/family

Time can be used for doctor's appointments, medical emergencies, finding safety from domestic violence

Learn More

pathwayspa.org

610-543-5022

@PathWaysPolicy

