

Informal Branch Poll at 2019 Summer Retreat

*Transcribed from flipchart
Sorted by Branch for ease of reference*

Most Memorable Moments of FY19

Beaver Valley	Successful kitchen tour Girls's Recognition night; well over 100 in attendance; partner with CCBC; for me: lunch on wrap-around porch Successful PFlag program – well received
Carlisle	95 th Anniversary Celebration!
Carlisle	Women's Rally on the Square; great day celebrating women and diversity
Carlisle	Televised congressional debate on WGAL hosted by AAUW!
Erie	Partnering with Penn State Erie AAUW student chapter and a war journalist as a speaker Lunch & Literature fundraising event As a past president and former AAUW grant recipient, being able to deliver scholarships to three other non-traditional women students; it's more than words can say. Equal pay program – collaboration between Erie Branch and Alpha Phi Beta Sorority for Women, Women of Colors, and New American Women.
Erie	Helped get a 'New American' woman into graduate school (back to her profession)
Huntingdon	Cohosting Elect Her with Juanita AAUW student organization
Huntingdon	Programming! Missing and murdered Native women and more
Johnstown	Fantastic book sale!
Lansdale	Hosting the branch program "An Inconvenient Truth" about global warming featuring Dr. Richard D. Doctor – much community involvement and participation
Lower Bucks	Girls' Recognition Night
Makefield Area	Reading to kids for Cops 'n' Kids Project
NEMCO	Speaker on Black Women influences to history throughout American history
North Hills Pittsburgh	Hosting a gerrymandering event; Local elected officials attended Received two invites to talk with other organizations
North Hills Pittsburgh	Programs we focused on women's empowerment
Reading	LunaFest sold out! Book Bonanza
State College	Accepting credit cards at book sale for first time
State College	District Meeting with Susan Spicka and Ann Pehle about cyber schools
State College	Storytelling

State College	Accepting credit cards at used book sales (significant change and upset of tradition)
State College	The Gerrymandering Song –with Debbie Trudeau of Fair Districts PS—Centre County
State College	Booksale was one of the best ever! Credit cards really helped!
West Chester	Attracted 12 new members for last year
York	Kitchen Tour Great Programs