President's Report

Cindy Hall

AAUW Pennsylvania Members,

Thank you for taking the time to keep current with the operating and financial reporting of our organization. As a membership organization, you have an important voice in our planning. We make our financial decisions based on the goal of supporting our membership. Conferences, retreats, and programs are some of the many important ways we provide updates on key issues relevant to AAUW's mission.

We also seek to be transparent in all we do. The Annual Business Meeting details the past year's financial decisions. I also would recommend you review the annual "Year in Review" which will be available on AAUW-PA.AAUW.net May 15th. State Board members can be reached directly via email. We strive to respond in a timely fashion.

This year you voted on AAUW PA Bylaws Revisions and the election of three State Board Officers. You also will vote at the May 4 Business Meeting on the AAUW PA Public Policy Priorities. These priorities have been vetted by Public Policy Branch Officers and the State Public Policy Committee. They will guide our advocacy work over the next two years and are the very foundation of our organization.

I continue to encourage Pennsylvania members to consider joining the state board. If you prefer to test the waters, there are committees needing your participation. Simply reach out to me or any other member of the state board noted on page 3 of this document. This is your organization and your views and participation matter.

Thank you for your membership,

Cindy Hall

President, AAUW Pennsylvania

RULES OF ORDER FOR THE AAUW PA 95TH ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING

1. All persons attending the meetings shall wear their name tags at all times. Members of the voting body shall be identified on their name tags; guests shall also be duly identified.
2. Students and guests, that is, non-member visitors such as spouses or speakers, are welcome at the annual business meeting but are not to participate in any voting, either by voice or ballot, nor to speak to any business before the state.
3. All persons appearing on the agenda for the business session shall be immediately available at the appropriate time.
4. All members of AAUW PA who are duly registered and in attendance at the Annual Meeting shall be considered the voting body and shall have the right to offer resolutions and motions and participate in debate.
5. When obtaining the floor, a speaker shall give her or his name and identify herself or himself by the branch to which she/he belongs or as a national member of AAUW who has joined AAUW PA and also by office held or other official designation if so desired. Speakers must also indicate whether they are speaking in favor of a motion or against it.
6. No member of the voting body shall speak in debate more than twice on the same subject nor longer than three minutes per turn without approval of the body. The President may ask speakers for and against motions to alternate addressing the body and may recognize speakers only in that order if so ruled. If no speakers from an opposing side rise to speak, speakers on one side or the other will be recognized until the close of debate.
7. The maker and seconder of a motion may speak first and second, in that order, if they so desire, but they may not speak a second time until all others desiring to speak have been heard.
8. To expedite the pressure of business, the president may limit the amount of time each speaker may address her or his discussion of a motion or set a total time for discussion of an item. The members in attendance may choose to extend these time limits by consensus or by formal motion.
9. "Call the question" is not a recognized or appropriate request from a member of the body. To "call for a vote" on a motion properly before the body, a member should make a motion to "close debate." This motion cannot interrupt a recognized speaker, requires a second, is not debatable, and requires a 2/3 vote for passage to end the debate.
10. Main motions and their amendments presented at in-person meetings must be submitted in writing, signed by the mover and presented to the secretary. Main motions and their amendments presented at virtual meetings must be sent to the secretary via Chat.
11. Motions pass by a majority vote unless the motion is to amend a bylaw, in which case it must pass with a 2/3 vote, or unless there are three or more candidates for a position, in which case a plurality wins the vote.
12. Only announcements of vital nature and general interest shall be made during this session.

CALL TO ORDER AND WELCOME. Cindy Hall called the meeting to order at 7:13pm and welcomed the members to the 94th Annual Meeting of AAUW-PA. Cindy noted the separation of the Annual Meeting and State Convention for timing purposes. Cindy further emphasized that all registrants received an announcement of the virtual Business Meeting via e-mail on April 8, 2023, while Branch Presidents received the same on February 20, 2023. Cindy thanked the registrants for their patience with virtual tool issues.

INTRODUCTIONS. Cindy made mention of Past Presidents on the call – Ann Pehle, Dr. Deborah Roney, and Barbara Price. Cindy noted that AAUW-PA lost two former presidents who had devoted themselves to AAUW – Linda Tozier, North Hills Pittsburgh; and Margaret McGrath, Fox Chapel Area. Cindy reflected how heavily their loss has been felt by those who knew them well on the State Board and in their branches and indicated that our thoughts are with their families and friends. Cindy recognized members currently serving on AAUW National Committees and Task Forces: Advancement: Ann Pehle (Carlisle); Public Policy: Barbara Price, Chair (Lower Bucks); Audit: Susan Nenstiel (Allentown, recently disbanded); Governance: Paula Tomko (Johnstown); and Nominations: Cindy Hall (State College). Cindy further introduced the State Board.

VOTING PROCEDURES. Sue Norris noted that only members of AAUW PA branches are eligible to vote in the election for state officer candidates and the proposed bylaws change. Voting was held online, on paper ballots, or at branch events and voting closed on April 30, 2023. There will be no voting for officers or the proposed bylaws change at the Annual Meeting.

As of May 3, 2023, there were 204 eligible voters from 26 branches registered for this meeting.

Members clicked a “thumbs up” to show they were in favor of the adoption of the Rules of Order and Agenda. All members gave a “thumbs up.” The Rules of Order and Agenda were adopted.

MINUTES OF THE 2022 STATE ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING. Ajla mentioned the minutes of the last annual business meeting have been reviewed by Deb Roney (Huntingdon) and Sue Johnston (State College). A link to the minutes was sent to registrants of the meeting. Ajla stated if there was no objection, we would dispense with the reading of those minutes. No one objected. Ajla asked if there were additions or corrections to the minutes and no one responded. Ajla moved for the acceptance of the minutes as written into the record. No one objected and Cindy approved the minutes as written by general consent.
